Choose German

#success

2016 until present
- Completing medical degree at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, after crediting relevant subjects from Bachelor of Science.

2015
- Australian-German Association (AGA) Fellowship at the Institute of Neuropathology, Freiburg, Germany, as a visiting scientist (10 weeks) to research how bacteria in the gut affect brain development

2013
- Internship (5 months) at the University Hospital Freiburg, Germany, researching neural circuits of the ear to combat deafness

2012
- 2-month language course with the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) in Kassel, Germany

2011
- Global Languages Scholarship to study on exchange for one semester at the University of Freiburg, Germany, as part of Bachelor of Science

2010–2014
- Chose to study German as a Diploma of Languages alongside Bachelor of Science (Honours) at University of Melbourne

2008
- Completed VCE studying German, Biology, Maths Methods, Psychology, Geography, English

2007
- SAGSE Scholarship sponsored by Siemens, a 10-week exchange in Hamburg, Germany

2006
- Chose to study VCE German at Year 10
- Went to Germany on a 3-week school trip

2003
- Chose to learn German at Box Hill High School

Ash did...

agtv.vic.edu.au

Deutsch für die Zukunft: German for the future

AGTV

Association of German Teachers of Victoria Inc.